Memorial Service—Year 6 attended the Memorial Service in Southwell Gardens today. The children all wrote Remembrance Poems and some were read out at the service. Ruby in Willow class wrote:

Empty is the Battlefield, from the war we fought and won, but yet the lives that we have lost, can never be re-stored

Oh loved one, what has this war done to you, I see you lying, still as stone

I'll miss your smile, your face, your eyes, but now I'll never see, the only man that ever loved me

School Photos - were taken on Monday morning and you should have all received your proofs and order forms. Please return orders to the school office by Friday 18th November.
